

Namibian Journal of Environment Volume 5

Section A: Peer-reviewed papers

Hofmann T, Marker L & Hondong H (2021) Detection success of cheetah (Acinonyx jubatus) scat by dog-human and human-only teams in a semi-arid savanna. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 A: 1-11

Weise FJ, Kilian JW & Périquet S (2021) Of teeth and claws: Taking stock of carnivore research in the greater Etosha landscape. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 A: 12-24

Treichel C, Strohbach BJ, Carr S, Loots S & Neckel A (2021) Euryops walterorum, a declining restricted-range endemic of the Greater Gamsberg. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 A: 25-38

Section B: Research reports

Kambongi T, Heyns L, Rodenwoldt D & Edwards S (2021) A description of daytime resting sites used by brown hyaenas (Parahyaena brunnea) from a high-density, enclosed population in north-central Namibia. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 B: 1-6

van der Waal BCW, Hipondoka MHT & Ekandjo MN (2021) Towards understanding the presence of abundant fish in running iishana. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 B: 7-10

Section C: Open articles

Haindongo PN, Kazapua VU & Shikongo PM (2021) Vegetation types and structure in the Kanovlei State Forest in Namibia. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 C: 1-3

Section D: Memoirs

Bryson U & Paijmans DM (2021) Common Fiscal (Lanius collaris) Linnaeus, 1766: comparative biometrics, moult data and criteria for the determination of age and sex. Namibian Journal of Environment 5 D: 1-23